QUALITY AND DIVERSITY FOR THE PEOPLE OF THE REGION

- THIS IS WHAT KUESTENGOLD STANDS FOR

At home in the north, but with an open view far into the country - that's what the Küstengold lighthouse stands for. And so our carefully selected Küstengold products come not only from northern Germany, but also beyond. Under our own brand Küstengold we offer you selected products at attractive prices. And all of this in a selected quality that you can trust without reservation. Because when it comes to product selection, we set high supplier standards and demanding quality controls according to our basis and strict quality criterias.

Look out for the Küstengold lighthouse: whether it's juice, honey or snacks - you'll now find well over many Küstengold everyday items in our full, diverse range! Taste experiences to surprise foodies in and outside East Frisia again and again.

BUNTING MEANS SUCCESS.

With more than 13,000 employees, the Bunting Group is one of the largest employers and most important trading companies in the whole of Northwest Germany. The secret of the Bunting Group's success: Business acumen plus a philosophy of dynamic development that have steadily driven Bunting forward.

The Bunting Group operates throughout Germany from its headquarter in Leer and the new administration building in Nortmoor. The holding company J. Bunting Beteiligungs AG is responsible for the strategic focus and central management of all the Bunting subsidiaries. These include a tea trading company, six sales subsidiaries, two service companies, a foundation and a tea museum.
